“BUSY BERLIN”.....

THIS Souvenir is issued at the present time in order to preserve, in a permanent and pleasing form, a record of Berlin's many industrial, commercial and residential attractions, as they appear at the opening of the 20th century. So far as can be discerned, an age of unprecedented industrial activity and competition lies immediately before us. In the past our town has more than held its own, and justly deserves the title “BUSY BERLIN.”

In this book an attempt has been made to take stock of our possessions, and place before the world an enduring record of our achievements. The steady and substantial growth of Berlin during the past quarter of a century has been remarkable. To-day many tangible monuments to the thrift, energy and progressiveness of our business men exist on every hand, testifying on their behalf more eloquently than words.

On the threshold of the new century we peer into the future with the greatest confidence. The succeeding pages are submitted for the perusal of all who would form some adequate idea of “BUSY BERLIN.”

HE TOWN OF BERLIN.

BERLIN has a population of 10,000 people. The inhabitants are mostly German, though some of the early settlers were of Dutch and Swiss origin. All brought to the town of their adoption those habits of thrift and industry, so characteristic of their ancestors in the old lands. A fair sprinkling of the Anglo-Saxon element is also present, and all classes work together in harmony to advance the highest interests of the town. That they have succeeded, and are succeeding, is a statement which cannot be successfully challenged.

Berlin is beautifully situated in the heart of one of the best Counties in Canada—Waterloo, of which it is the legislative, judicial and commercial centre. For many miles around lie rich agricultural lands, unsurpassed anywhere in fertility.

Berlin is especially noted as a manufacturing town. The wares sent forth from her busy workshops find a ready market in every corner of the Dominion, and even beyond the seas. So diversified are her industries that there is scarcely an article used for man's sustenance, either as food or apparel, that is not made within her gates.

Her public men, while economical, have ever pursued a liberal policy towards industries of a deserving kind; and this course, in conjunction with the steady and reliable class of labor obtainable, has done much to render the place a centre of tall chimneys. The progressive policy of the past is still in force, and the maximum of encouragement will at all times be extended to new industries. A glance at the pages of this book will give a good idea of Berlin's status as a manufacturing town.

Berlin is on the main line of the Grand Trunk Railway, only 62 miles from Toronto, the Provincial Capital. It is connected by rail with all the important points in Waterloo County, while a trolley line links it with the sister Town of Waterloo. An electric road, giving direct connection with the C.P.R. at Galt, via Preston, is nearly ready for operation. The effort to obtain a second and competing line of railway dates back for fifteen years. Closely identified with the movement to secure C.P.R. connection stands Mr. John Fennell, who has labored long and persistently to bring about the desired end. His labors have been warmly seconded by the Board of Trade and the Town Council. Easy of access from all points, and with unsurpassed shipping facilities, Berlin thus offers a most desirable business or residential location.

Berlin is a cleanly and healthful town, fully abreast of the times in sanitary appliances. An excellent sewerage system is in operation, the sewage being disposed of on a farm two miles away, after a thorough course of filtration through modern septic tanks.

The water supply is wholly artesian and unexcelled in purity. The town owns its waterworks plant and operates it at a profit. The mains are being rapidly extended, an evidence that consumers are well pleased.

Low taxes are the rule in Berlin, the rate fluctuating between 16 and 17 mills. All local improvements are done on the frontage tax principle, and long stretches of granolithic walks and permanent roads have been constructed. The debenture debt is small.

Berlin has an efficient fire brigade and the latest fire fighting appliances. A fine electric system keeps every part of the city in direct and close connection with the department, where a paid brigade is ever ready to make instant response. The town has an all night electric light service.

Berlin easily carries off the palm as a law-abiding centre. But one policeman patrols the streets, and his duties are extremely light.

The educational facilities of the town stand in the front rank. Four handsome Public, and one Separate school, all presided over by well trained staffs of teachers, accommodate the needs of primary education; the First New Jerusalem Society also have a school of their own. Secondary education is provided for by the Berlin High School and St. Jerome's College. The town boasts two business colleges.

The enlightened public sentiment of Berlin long since demanded a Free Library. It was accordingly established, and is well patronized.

The Post Office and Customs Departments are housed in a fine building, and an enormous amount of business annually passes through the hands of the capable staffs at these places.

Berlin has one of the largest markets boasted of by any town in the Dominion. It is rapidly growing, and the already extensive accommodation will be enlarged in the immediate future.

The hotel accommodation of Berlin is first-class, several of its hosteries ranking with the best west of Toronto. This, together with the fact that it possesses many points of interest for the tourist, makes the town an ideal resort for excursionists and others.

Berlin has branches of the Bell Telephone Co., the G.N.W. and C.P.R. Telegraph Co.'s., and the Dominion and Canadian Express Co.'s. All are efficient and reliable caterers to the public wants in their respective fields.

The retail stores of Berlin are widely noted, and draw their patronage from an extensive area. None better can be found outside the large cities. Berlin is also the home of several wholesale houses, notably among which is that of Messrs. Randall & Roos, wholesale grocers.

Berlin contains upwards of a score of religious denominations, mostly housed in beautiful edifices. These, together with a well equipped Hospital, Orphanage, Young Men's Christian Association, and a Children's Aid Society, evidence the high religious and philanthropic sentiment of the people.

The town is well supplied with banking and insurance houses. The head office of the Economical Fire Insurance Co., and branches of the Banks of Hamilton, Nova Scotia, Merchants and Commerce are situated here.

Berlin has often been appropriately called the "City of Homes." In no other place can be found so large a percentage of the workingmen possessing their own homes, mostly substantial brick structures.

The recreation needs of the town are amply provided for in the numerous social clubs, parks, sporting and musical organizations and theatrical productions..

With characteristic progressiveness Berlin is agitating for a public abattoir and there is a bright prospect of having such an institution established before long. Also, experts express the opinion that the soil in this vicinity is splendidly adapted for sugar beets. A beet sugar factory is, therefore, another possibility.

Berlin has a bright future before it, and the publishers of this book fearlessly submit its pages for examination, fully confident that our busy, bustling, but withal beautiful town, can be excelled by none other.

....HISTORICAL....

The first man to take up land on the present site of Berlin was Benjamin Eby,—afterwards Bishop Eby,—a native of Pennsylvania. This was in 1805. Others who located here about the same time were Joseph Schneider and Joseph and Jacob Shantz. At one time during this early period, four farms, whose corners came together at the intersection of King and Foundry Sts., were owned respectively by Benj. Eby, Samuel Eby, Abraham Weber and Joseph Schneider. The earliest designation of the place was the "Sand Hills," and later the more euphonious name of "Mount Pleasant." A large portion of the section adjacent to King St. was in 1816 a swamp. That portion where the Post Office and Town Hall now stand was, however, high ground, much elevated above the present level. Good reports of soil and climate spread abroad and additional settlers from Pennsylvania began to flock in. The village grew apace. In 1835 the first newspaper was established in the German language. In 1852, after an exciting contest with Galt, the village was honored by being chosen as the county seat. The good news was brought from Brantford by a negro courier, and occasioned great rejoicing, which found expression in a display of fireworks, public speeches, etc. In 1854 it was incorporated as a village, and in 1870 as a town. Ten years later it had gained some prominence as a commercial and manufacturing centre, and since then has forged rapidly ahead, until to-day it occupies an enviable place among the larger towns and lesser cities of the Dominion.

An interesting story of the selection of the present name of the town has been handed down. Early in the thirties, a group of villagers were seated one evening in the village inn, discussing the matter, when two strangers walked in and called for refreshments. The village spokesman, being curious, questioned them. "Where are you from?" was asked. "Berlin, Germany, and we are looking for homes." "Then," said the questioner, "settle here, and Berlin shall be the name of this place." And thus it was settled.

Churches, Benevolent Institutions and Societies.

Berlin's many large and handsome church edifices, together with its Hospital, Orphanage, Y.M.C.A. and House of Refuge bear mute, but eloquent testimony, to the strong moral and religious sentiment of the people.

The religious denominations are:—Baptist (German), Rev. J. Friedrich, pastor; Baptist (English), Rev. P. A. McEwan, pastor; Carmel Church of the New Jerusalem, Rev. F. E. Waelchli, pastor; Christadelphian; First Church of Christ, Scientist; New Jerusalem Temple, Rev. A. B. Francisco, pastor; New Mennonites in Christ, Rev. S. Goudy, pastor; Old Mennonites; St. Andrew's (Presbyterian), Rev. W. A. Bradley, pastor; St. Mary's, (Roman Catholic), pastors, Rev. Dr. Kloepfer, C.R., Rev. Wm. V. Kloepfer, C. R., and Rev. Francis Breitkopf, C. R., pastor of the Polish congregation; St. John's (Anglican), Rev. Carl S. Smith, M. A., rector; St. Peter's (Evangelical Lutheran), Rev. R. von Pirch, pastor; St. Paul's (Lutheran), Rev. W. C. Boese, pastor; Trinity Methodist, Rev. Dr. Williamson, pastor; United Brethren (Liberal), Rev. M. I. Comfort, pastor; United Brethren (Radical), Rev. W. Backus, pastor; Zion (Evangelical), Rev. A. Y. Haist, pastor; Salvation Army.

Besides the Young Men's Christian Association, which is doing excellent work, there are various Young People's Societies, viz. : Society of Christian Endeavor, Epworth League, Young People's Alliance and Young People's Union.

Educational Matters.

One of the earliest schools in Berlin was near the present site of the Old Mennonite Church. Here, Mr. Benj. Eby who afterwards became a Bishop of the Mennonite body, taught in 1820. In 1838 John Wenger, sr., a pumpmaker, fitted up his pumpshop and there taught for two years, at the end of which time a school house was built where the Fire Hall now stands. In 1856 the Central School was erected. It had four rooms and the teachers were:—Mr. Alex. Young, Principal; Mr. J. R. Strang, and Misses Wait and E. Shoemaker. The Trustees were:—Messrs. Geo. Jantz, Chairman; Wm. Davidson, Secretary; Dr. J. Scott, J. Y. Shantz, Henry Eby and J. W. Eby. In 1864 Mr. Thos. Pearce assumed the principalship of the Central, then an eight-room building. Mr. Pearce was appointed County Inspector of Schools in 1870. In 1876 the Central became a twelve-room building. The teaching staff for 1901 is:—Mr. J. Sulday, Principal; J. H. Martin, H. W. Brown, Misses L. Sheppard, C. Groff, A. O. Cowan, L. Cairnes, A. Scully, A. Bornhold, M. B. Dunham, and Misses G. Johnson and B. Sutton, Kindergarten. In 1887 the first ward school was erected on Agnes street. It was a four-roomed building, but in 1897 was enlarged to eight rooms. The present staff is:—Mr. R. Reid, Principal; Misses A. F. Devitt, A. F. Williams, M. Shantz, J. Kaempf, F. McKay, M. Williamson, and Miss A. Walker, Kindergarten. In 1890 Courtland Ave. School was erected. It has four rooms and the following is the staff: Miss M. B. Tier, Principal;—Miss M. Woods, Mrs. A. Miller, and Miss S. Ayers, Kindergarten. In 1894 the Margaret Ave. School of four rooms was built. The teachers are:—Miss J. Metcalfe, Principal; Misses E. Roberts, I. Schmidt, and Miss J. Thompson, Kindergarten. German is taught in all the schools, and instruction in music has been given for many years under the direction of Prof. Zoellner. The expenditure for public school purposes in 1900 was $15,172.75 and the average attendance 1077 out of 1408 pupils enrolled. This does not include 415 Kindergarten pupils. The Board of Trustees for 1901 are: Messrs. G. M. DeBus, Chairman; Dr. C. L. Pearson, H. J. Hall, Dr. H. G. Lackner, J. L. Meisner, W. Vogt, Dr. J. E. Hett, J. G. Buchhaupt, A. Bricker and F. Kress.

BERLIN HIGH SCHOOL.—The High School is among the best in the province. The first Grammar School Board was appointed by the County Council in 1855, and consisted of Messrs. H. S. Huber, chairman; D. S. Shoemaker, D. Chalmers, Isaac Clemens, Jno. Scott and Wm. Davidson, Sec'y-Treas. Until 1871 the Grammar School and the Public School were both in the present Model School building. In 1871 the former was removed to the old Swedenborgian Church, corner of Church and Benton Sts., and in 1875 the present building, midway between Berlin and Waterloo, was erected. During the last 25 years but few changes in the staff have been made, and the school has prospered accordingly. The present efficient staff is: Mr. D. Forsyth, specialist in Mathematics and Science, principal; Mr. J. W. Connor, specialist in Classics and English; Mr. F. W. Sheppard, specialist in English; Mr. W. B. Weidenhammer, specialist in Modern Languages. Manual training is now under consideration, and such a department will doubtless be established before long by the High School Board. The present Board consists of: C. Bitzer, Chairman; E. Smyth, Aug. Lang, H. Kranz, Dr. D. S. Bowlby; Peter Sherk, Bridgeport; A. Werner, Elmira; J. G. Reiner, Wellesley; Carl Kranz, Sec'y-Treas.

Sr. JEROME'S COLLEGE.—This well known institution of learning was founded in 1864 by the Rev. Louis Funcken, D. D., of the Congregation of the Resurrection. It was then but a small log building, with less than a dozen students ; it is now an important residential college, with a splendid staff of teachers, trained in the best European Universities. Its students, drawn from many different sections of Canada and the United States, are carefully prepared for the higher work of University, or for commercial life. The faculty is as follows : Rev. The school, which is well equipped and modern in every respect, has been under the able supervision of the Sisters of Notre Dame since 1874. The average attendance for 1900 was 431. The Separate School Board are : Rev. Wm. Kloepfer, Chairman ; Rev. Theo. Spetz, and Messrs. W. Forwell, Geo. C. H. Lang, H. Krug, I. Strauss, A. Englert, I. Haller, P. Ringle ; J. F. THE SCHOOL OF THE CARMEL CHURCH OF THE NEW JERUSALEM was established in 1888. The building now occupied was erected in 1892. It is situated on King St. West, and is surrounded by beautiful and spacious grounds. In form it is nearly a cube, measuring about 42 feet each way. The first floor is used for school purposes, and is excellently equipped with school furnishings, including a library and museum. The average attendance of pupils is about 35. During the winter months, night school is conducted in Berlin by the Y.M.C.A. and Berlin Business College.

BERLIN RECREATIVE.

Though it would be difficult to find a busier place than Berlin, yet in no other town is the need for relaxation more fully recognized or better facilities for recreation provided. Excellent athletic grounds bespeak the love for, and indulgence in manly sport, while the naturally hospitable and social disposition of the people is vouches for by the numerous social clubs and societies. Considering the passionate fondness of the Germans for music, it is not surprising that Berlin constantly maintains one of the best bands in the province, viz., the 29th Regimental Band. It is under the patronage of the Berlin Musical Society, and is supported by generous contributions from the citizens and an annual grant from the town. The band consists of 40 performers, among whom are some of the best soloists to be found, and its services are always in demand, both at home and abroad. It has a complete instrumentation, and is under the leadership of Mr. N. Zeller, who has long been recognized as one of the most successful bandmasters of the day. The officers of the Musical Society are :—President, W. H. Schmalz ; Vice-President, C. N. Huether ; Treasurer, Wm. Roos ; Secretary, F. H. Illing.

Two flourishing German singing societies keep alive the songs and customs of the Fatherland. They are : the Concordia, founded in 1873, and the Saengerbund. Both have a membership varying from 100 to 150. The officers of the Concordia are :—President, A. Glaeser ; Vice-President, L. Bardon ; Secretary, H. Rathman ; Treasurer, W. Rohleder. The Saengerbund officers are :—President, F. von Neubronn ; Vice-President, E. Ferrier ; Secretary, J. Kressler ; Treasurer, C. Dillon ; Collector, F. Shatz ; Archivar, J. Zinkann. Other musical organizations are : Y. M. C. A. Glee Club, organized in 1899 ; Haydn String Quartette, which is under the direction of Prof. Zoellner, and plays only the classical works of the great masters, and Ziegler's orchestra, a very popular group of musicians and before the footlights and for various special occasions.

To provide mental food as well as recreation, a Free Library was established eighteen years ago. It is controlled by a Board composed of influential and progressive citizens, and now contains 7086 volumes of English and German books, with over 3000 readers. A site for a new building was purchased some years ago and a Free Library building will be erected.

Outdoor recreation is amply provided for by the spacious parks, chief of which is Victoria Park, a magnificent stretch of smooth sward, water, and woodland, with splendid athletic grounds in connection. A feature of the park is Victoria Lake, in the centre of which is Roos Island, named after Mr. Win. Roos, who has always taken the deepest interest in park matters, and to whose interest in the matter, Berlin really owes its beautiful Victoria Park. The various athletic organizations, notably the football, baseball and lacrosse teams, take full advantage of the facilities afforded for practice, and keep the name of Berlin to the front in the sporting world. This is especially the home of Association Football, the Rangers having a national reputation. The championship of the Western Association is, to them a timeworn honor, while they have been champions of Canada time and again. The Berlin Club is a much appreciated private institution, with handsome apartments on King St. East. The present officers are :—President, W. H. Riddell ; Vice-President, W. H. Bowlby ; Treasurer, D. Forsyth ; Secretary, C. E. Hoffman ; Directors, G. C. H. Lang, Alex. Millar, W. Roos, E. O. Boehmer, G. A. Bruce, Judge Chisholm. Berlin boasts a modern Opera House. Mr. Geo. O. Philip is the popular manager, and during the season the best productions of the Canadian circuit appear here.

Hospital, Lodges, Etc.

The Twin City Hospital was erected in 1895 by the Towns of Berlin and Waterloo jointly. In 1899 an Isolation Building was added. Both are model institutions of their kind. The Berlin Orphanage is quartered in a commodious building on King St. West, and is doing most useful philanthropic work. One of the first Houses of Refuge to be established in the Province was that in Berlin. A large addition was built in 1900, bringing the institution up-to-date in every particular. It is well conducted and a credit to the County. The following is a complete list of the Fraternal and Benevolent Societies represented in Berlin, and will prove interesting :—Grand River Lodge No. 151, A.F. and A.M. ; Berlin Chapter No. 117, R.A.M. ; Berlin Lodge No. 154, A.O.U.W. ; Welcome Lodge No. 334, A.O.U.W. ; Grand Union Lodge No. 97, I.O.O.F. ; Liberty Lodge No. 323, I.O.O.F. ; Samaritan Encampment No. 49, I.O.O.F. ; Court Berlin No. 72, C.O.F. ; St. Bonifice Benefit Society ; Court Union No. 233, C.O.F. ; Court Berlin No. 154, I.O.F. ; Court Mayflower No. 7774, A.O.F. ; Berlin Council No. 57, C.O.C.F. ; Berlin Tent, No. 21, K.O.T.M. ; Star Tent No. 61, K.O.T.M. ; Berlin Council No. 332, R. MANUFACTORIES.

The following is a list of Berlin's manufactories, with a brief sketch of the more important concerns :

C. A. AHRENS & CO.: Boots, Shoes and Slippers. This firm was established nearly fifteen years ago, and is accounted one of the solid institutions of the town. Their trade has steadily grown, and their wares are known and sought for, from the Maritime Provinces to the Territories. Their factory is a fine three-story block, of which they occupy two whole flats. (See Ill.)

BERLIN PIANO & ORGAN CO.: J. M. Staebler, Pres. No other instruments excell those turned out by this firm. BERLIN RUBBER M'F'G CO.: Rubber Boots and Shoes of all kinds. This is another young firm whose superior product is compelling wide recognition, and a splendid market has been opened up, especially in the Northwest and British Columbia. The car house is at the Waterloo end of the line; at the Berlin end the Company has a large plot of ground used at present for switching purposes. Commencing in 1892 with a staff of one man and two boys, they to-day employ seventy hands. Their output has doubled each succeeding year, and their travellers cover Ontario and the Northwest thoroughly. Some idea of the magnitude of the business may be gained when it is stated that their consumption of sugar reaches nearly one million pounds annually. They manufacture their own cases and cardboard boxes and occupy a fine two-story and basement factory. (See Ill.)

DIAMOND FURNITURE Co.: Parlor and Library Tables, Tabourettes, Jardiniere Stands, Music Cabinets and Buffets. This firm commenced in a modest way in 1897. In the face of keen competition they have forged to the front, and have twice been compelled to enlarge their premises. The last addition to their factory was in 1900, when a substantial brick building, 48x65 feet and three stories high, was erected. Their goods find a ready market the Dominion over. (See Ill.)

C. N. HUEETHER, Brewer. A fine modern building was erected in 1899 on King St. West. It is one of the best equipped breweries in Ontario. The celebrated Wuerzburger and Pilsener brands of Lager are unexcelled.

D. HIBNER & Co., manufacturers of Parlor Frames, Hall Stands, Parlor and Music Cabinets, Ladies' Secretaries, Bookcases, Combination Secretaries, Rockers, Morris Chairs, Couches, Diners and Parlor Tables. This is one of Berlin's big firms, over 100 hands being regularly employed. Their trade extends from ocean to ocean, in addition to which they enjoy a growing export trade. Their fine brick factory, corner of Breithaupt and Edward Streets, contains over 53,000 square feet of floor space. (See Ill.)

JACKSON, COCHRANE & Co.: Woodworking Machinery. A specialty is made of Furniture Machinery. This is a comparatively young firm, whose energy and enterprise have won for them success. Their main building is 75x45 feet and three stories high, with a one-story 150x80 foot annex. Forty people are now employed, and the output is widely recognized as possessing genuine merit.

H. KRUG: Dining Chairs and Parlor Tables. (See Ill.)

J. KAUFMAN: Sashes, Doors, Blinds and Mouldings. General Building Supplies. Dealer in Lumber, Shingles and Lath.

J. KREINER & Co.: Fancy Tables and Parlor Frames; Office Chairs a specialty. The goods of this firm are well known all over Canada on account of their superior finish. They also enjoy a profitable and growing export trade to England.

LIPPERT & Co.: Parlor and Dining-Room Chairs, Bookcases, Hat-racks and Centre Tables. This business, though recently established, is winning a large measure of success. A modern factory, 50x100 feet and four stories high, was erected in 1899, and manufacturing commenced last year. Already their furniture is recognized throughout the length and breadth of the Dominion as being among the very best. The factory is lighted throughout with electric light and fitted up with the most modern machinery. Sixty men are employed and the firm is compelled to work overtime to fill orders. (See Ill.)

L. McBRINE & CO.: Trunks, Valises, and Leather Embossed Goods. This is one of the younger firms, having been established about six years ago by two pushing young men, Messrs. L. McBrine and W. G. Cleghorn. They have met with signal success, and have increased their output each year. The Dominion is their field, and they are rapidly extending their trade. They occupy two factories at present and turn out a full line of Trunks, Valises and Travelling Bags. (See Ill.)

G. V. ÖBERHOLTZER CO., LIMITED: Boots and Shoes. In common with many others this business grew from very small beginnings. At present some 65 hands are employed, and the choice footwear produced is a marketable commodity over a wide area. (See Ill.)

I. E. SHANTZ & SON: Farming Machinery, Engines and Boilers, Pipe Cutting and Threshing Machines, Hot Air and Hot Water Furnaces and Castings of all kinds. Well Drilling Machinery. Particular attention given specially ordered machinery. An old established firm that has met with well merited success. (See Ill.)

J. V. SHANTZ & SON CO., LIMITED: fine lines of Buttons, Ivory, Horn, Pearl and Pearlette. This is one of the oldest firms in Berlin, having been established by Jacob V. Shantz, in 1870. It is the pioneer button factory of Canada, and for a long time was the only one. In 1893 the Company took possession of the large premises now occupied, transforming them into the most complete button factory in the Dominion. About two hundred hands are employed, and the product, together with that of a branch factory in Buffalo, finds a market all over the American continent. (See Ill.)

THE ALPHA CHEMICAL COMPANY: Manufacturers of "QUICKSHINE" polishes, the BEST ON EARTH.

THE STAR WHITEWEAR MANUFACTURING CO.: Ladies' Whitewear and all kinds of Ladies' Shirt Waists. Silk and high-class goods a specialty. This is another of the fast growing concerns of Berlin. The staff, recently largely increased, must in a short time, be doubled. The new three-story factory, 50x100 feet, erected in 1900, is already proving inadequate to meet the growing demands of the trade. (See Ill.)

THE BERLIN FELT BOOT CO.: manufacturers of all kinds of warm Footwear, from a Lumberman's Heavy Boot to a Ladies' Fine Slipper. This firm is the largest felt boot and shoe manufacturing establishment in America, and was established in 1868. Their goods are sold by every dealer in the Dominion, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, as well as in the cold regions of the Yukon. Mr. Geo. Rumpel is the sole owner of the Berlin Felt Boot Co.

THE BERLIN FURNITURE CO.: Was purchased by the Strathroy Furniture Co., and will be carried on under the management of W. F. Wilson and J. E. Jacques. This firm will manufacture many of the lines made by the late company and is adding bedroom and dining-room furniture. They have one of the completest factory buildings and equipments in Canada. The manufactory is 85x125 and four stories. About 100 hands are employed. (See Ill.)

THE BREITHAUPt LEATHER CO., LIMITED, manufacturers of Spanish, Slaughter and Union Sole Leather. This is one of the oldest firms in Berlin, having been established in 1857 by the late Louis Breithaupt. Guided ever since by men whose ancestors have for generations been tanners, the business has grown steadily from year to year. After the death of the founder, in 1880, it was conducted for ten years by his administrators, when it was taken over by the present company, of which Mr. L. J. Breithaupt, M.P.P., is President, and Mr. J. C. Breithaupt, Secretary. Large branch tanneries were established in Penetang and Listowel in 1882 and 1891 respectively. Through push, enterprise and square dealing, the present company, the managers of which are both practical men, has succeeded in building up one of the largest businesses of the kind in the Dominion. In addition to their large warehouses in Berlin, they have warehouses in Toronto and Montreal, and manufacture for both Canadian and export trade.

THE BERLIN & RACYCLE M'F'G CO.: LIMITED, manufacturers of the famous Racycle, the best wheel made in Canada. This firm has shipped wheels to Switzerland and the Yukon, and has had inquiries from South Africa, India and Great Britain. They have well established agencies in every town in the Dominion.

The firm's buildings are handsome and extensive and contain 45,000 square feet of floor space. The plant is very complete. This firm confines itself exclusively to the manufacture of Shirts, Collars and Cuffs. The "W. G. & R." trade mark is a hall-mark of excellence. This company employs from 525 to 600 people. S. J. Williams, President and Treasurer ; W. A. Greene, Vice-President and Secretary.

THE LANG TANNING COMPANY, LIMITED : Was originally established by the late R. Lang in 1849. He carried it on until 1873 when he admitted his eldest son, George, into partnership. The firm of R. Lang & Son conducted the business under this name until the year 1891. In that year The Lang Tanning Co, Ltd. was formed and was composed entirely of members of the family. This business has grown from a very small beginning to the largest in the Dominion. Their leather is all stamped with a registered trade mark—The "Anchor" Brand—which is acknowledged by the trade to be the best in Canada and unsurpassed in America. The plant itself covers nearly 10 acres of ground and is recognized as one of the most modern and up-to-date tanneries in existence. The present capacity is 3000 sides Harness leather per week and is to be largely increased in the near future. This business has been under the same management since 1873.
